ABOUT SECOND WIND

Perfect Liveaboard Cruiser with New Engine!!! This 1984 Irwin 41 "Second Wind" turns heads everywhere she goes. Sleek lines exemplify her greyhound spirit. The masthead cutter-ketch rig is simple as well as functional and will move the 41 effortlessly in light summer breezes. Irwin uses only proven, time tested hardware that is strategically placed for easy handling. The deck is clean, uncluttered, and has plenty of room for sunning. The amount of room in the 41 is stunning, perfect as a liveaboard or longer term cruising boat. She is a wonder in space planning. Many hours of thought and extreme care went into the aesthetics and finished design, and the result is a wonderfully comfortable yacht. The aft stateroom has a double berth, large teak-framed mirror, six drawers, cedar-trimmed...
