ABOUT KNOT TODAY

2001 Maxum 3500 SCR Well-maintained 2001 Maxum 3500 SCR — a comfortable express cruiser that's been cared for and thoughtfully updated over the years. This boat offers plenty of space both above and below deck, making it a great setup for weekend cruising or overnight trips. Powered by twin MerCruiser 7.4L MPI engines with less than 600 hours. Both engines have been regularly serviced and run strong. The boat handles well and offers a smooth, solid ride typical of Maxum's larger cruisers. The interior is bright and comfortable, with a large forward berth, mid-cabin lounge, full galley, and enclosed head with shower. There's good headroom throughout, and everything is laid out to maximize space and functionality. Forward Stateroom: Island berth with privacy door, hanging lockers, and...
