ABOUT B - 57

BENETEAU 57 : Designed by Bruce Farr, the Beneteau 57 has long been respected for its blend of performance, comfort, and ocean-going capability. Over the years, it has quietly earned a loyal following among experienced sailors — and more recently, it's enjoying renewed admiration for its build quality, timeless design, and long-legged cruising ability. It stands apart from many modern production yachts thanks to its robust construction, elegant proportions and refined interior layout. This 2004 example is the highly regarded Owner's Version, featuring a full-beam aft stateroom and four cabins in total. She has been privately owned from new, never chartered, and is presented in excellent condition both above and below decks. Over the past two years, her current owner has carried out an...
