ABOUT LIFE IS A GIFT

Ready to Cruise in Style? A popular model during her production years, the Regal 2665 Commodore is a well-built 29-footer that combines a roomy, user-friendly cockpit with comfortable cabin accommodations. The market for trailerable family cruisers this size is extremely competitive, close to two dozen manufacturers fight it out each year for a share of this lucrative market. Aside from her well-balanced layout, the Commodore's upscale amenities and above-average finish set her a notch or two above much of the competition. The cockpit is arranged with facing bench seats aft of the helm. A small refreshment center to port has a sink and space below for a carry-on ice chest. Below decks, the Commodore's cozy midcabin interior has all of the essentials required for a weekend getaway,...
