ABOUT HUNTER

Innovation in design, excellence in engineering, and an incredible layout make the Hunter 310 a great midsize cruiser. Great natural light is plentiful throughout the cabin with multiple hatches and screened ports. Entertaining or dining, the salon can handle family or friends with ease. The large dinette easily converts to a double for extended families and the settees offer plenty of storage as well. Topsides, the Hunter 310 has a cockpit that allows all the crew to participate or kick back as they desire. The stern rail seats are up and out of the way, and a custom console houses the standard VHF and instruments as well as the engine controls and compass. There is plenty of storage under the seating. The helm seat hinges aft, leading onto the walkthrough transom complete with propane...
