ABOUT GRAND CRU

Proven World Cruiser - Ready to go AGAIN!!! Grand Cru is a 2010 Lagoon 400 that has proven she can cross oceans safely with a family of five. She was originally purchased by the current owner in the Med and sailed there for their first season aboard. She was then sailed out into the Atlantic and down to the Caribbean where she ventured from island to island before eventually making landfall in the US. She was then sailed up to Maine and back down to Florida before heading back to the Bahamas. She then made her way back to Florida and now back again to the Chesapeake Bay. This boat is extensively equipped for living comfortably and safely for extended periods of time and has shown she is built sturdy enough to handle anything that Mother Nature can send her way. All the while, she has all...
