ABOUT FLYING B

The "Flying B" is a 2017 54 ENX built by French Custom Yachts in Stuart, Florida, she offers a bridge/salon combo that is open to the action during the day while allowing an open social space for guests weather fishing or cruising. The bridge can also be closed up into a private entertainment space with LCD privacy glass on aft windows for entertaining at night. This boat was built to the highest standards in yacht construction today. The 54 ENX is fully epoxy composite with a "one piece" construction approach, the hull is infused with toughened epoxy and post cured, Monocoque construction provides the stiffest overall boat, Integral tank construction, cored stringer system and honey combed walls and soles for weight savings are just a few of her attributes. "Flying B " is powered by...
