ABOUT YAS 88

The YAS 88 is a 20.8-metre (68'3") Cranchi Sessantasette 67, built in Italy and distinguished by its contemporary profile, clean lines, and striking contrast between its white hull and dark-glazed superstructure. With a beam of 5.45 metres, she offers impressive volume and a commanding presence on the water. Powered by twin Volvo Penta D13 IPS 1350 engines with joystick control, YAS 88 delivers efficient performance, responsive handling, and effortless manoeuvrability. Humphree fin stabilisers provide enhanced comfort both underway and at anchor, ensuring a smooth cruising experience in a variety of sea conditions. Designed for life outdoors, the yacht features expansive deck spaces and a spacious flybridge equipped with a T-top incorporating electric opening slats. With a fuel capacity...
