WARNING - LIMITATIONS ON USE

This product (including the Navionics charts) is intended to be used only as an aid to navigation. It should facilitate use of official government charts, not replace them. Only official government charts and notes (if available) contain the current information needed for safe navigation. This product's features cannot be relied on as complete or accurate. Use and availability may vary locally. It is the captain's responsibility to use official government charts, notices to mariners, caution, sound judgment and proper navigational skill when operating their vessel or using this or any other Raymarine product.

This product supports Navionics electronic charts. Their use is subject to the Navionics End-User License Agreement included in the documentation for this product. By pressing OK, I confirm that:

1. I acknowledge the above warning and accept the limitations of this product and the Navionics charts.
2. I have read the documentation for this product and the Navionics End-User License Agreement (including its related and agree to be bound by their terms).

The Navionics charts pre-loaded in this product contain a limited version of navigational data. Contact your dealer for information on upgrade options and the complete line of chart products.
